Comment :            Lewis, you had prepared your speech well, but the actual presentation felt like you were going through the motions and you had very little emotional towards your topic which I am sure is not true. You had excellent eye contact and used your cue cards when required. The pace of your delivery was very good. The content of your speech was well structured but be careful how you end your speech.
